Reliable Security in a Fast Moving World

A Message

from the Sales & Marketing Manager

“ A Company doesn't last for 130 years by standing still. It endures by reinventing itself, always striving to satisfy its customers, and by winning in the marketplace.

That's the story of CCL Security Products™. We started as a Cabinet Lock company, and 35 years later invented the first resettable brass padlock... and we've never stopped innovating.

Corbin Cabinet Lock was founded in 1882 in New Britain, CT. The company spent 121 years there before moving to its current location in Wheeling, IL in 2003.

While I'm still new to the company, I've long been a fan, growing up with its Sesamee® products. It started in elementary school with Sesamee® and then later in life with the SearchAlert® TSA Lock.

The brands, CCL Security Products™, Sesamee®, Huski, Prestolock and SearchAlert® aren't the only reasons I joined the company. It takes talented and creative people to bring our brands to life every day, all around the world – people who strive to do great things deliver amazing product and win.

I'm proud to be a part of CCL Security Products™ and humbled to have the opportunity to lead it on the next part of its journey. My colleagues and I, at all levels of the company, are committed to driving profits through principles. At the most basic level, we may make Camlocks, Cabinet Locks and Padlocks, but the way we do so enables us to not only grow the company, but to also make a difference.
